HINDS WOMAN MUST GO. Ordered to Take Five Children and Leave City and State.

As a result of a raid of the brick house on Jackson place Sunday evening by the police, the four principals, Mrs. Frances Hinds, Miss Annie Robinson, both colored; George Petero and Nicholas Lamonte, were arraigned in police court Monday mornraigned in police court Monday morning.

Mrs. Hinds was charged with keeping a house of ill-fame; there were four counts against her. She pleaded not guilty. Lieutenant Killourey, Officers McArthur, Grady and Paulhus and a neighbor, Henry W. Smith (colored), gave testimony. The officers told of knowing the locality and the unsavory reputation of the place, especially the tenement occupied by Mrs. Hinds. Officer McArthur related his observation while covering the Jackson street beat in February and told of an occasion when be was called there on complaint and saw four colored women and six Italians carousing in the place, Officer Grady said that the place was reputed to be immoral; as far back as last November, when he was on the beat, he saw colored when he was on the beat, he saw col-ored men going in there after the sa-loons had closed and had also seen Annie Robinson there in company of Lieutenant Killourey told the court that he had been called there on two or three occasions within the past three or four menths on complaints of tenants above, who alleged that they could not sleep because of the continued racket below in the Hinds tenerally.

Henry W. Smith (colored), a neighbor, testified that he knew the place to be very had because of the actions of one of his boys who spent most of his time there up to a short time ago, when he was thrashed by a crowd of Italians who frequented the tenement. Mr. Smith said that his son was there for days and nights at a time.

pleaded guilty. In her own behalf, Mrs. Hinds said that she did not keep any such place as charged, but that Annie Robinson simply took care of her children for her while she was out doing washings and that Annie had an Italian lover, who lived near the block, who came there regularly to see her. She said that other Italians were accustomed to come there and bring music and were there enjoying themselves, but were there enjoying themselves, but there was nothing wrong. Prosecuting Attorney E. Frank Bugbee addressed the court, saying that the woman has five children that must be cared for. He had known Mrs. Hinds and her dead husband and they were respectable people when they came to town a few years ago. Things had gone bad for Mrs. Hinds since her husband's death and he would ask if it were possible to omit a jall sentence.

SPLITS THE DIFFERENCE. Local No. 825 Votes to Ask $2.87 1-2 for Minimum Wage.

Local No. $25, Carpenters and Joiners of America, at its regular meeting in its rooms in A. B. S. hall Monday evening, discussed the proposition that the contractors' association offered to journeymen at a meeting held Feb. 28, which was that the minimum wage should be $2.75 per day of eight hours for outside and nine hours for ship work, commencing April 1. After a long and careful consideration of the meter from every standpoint the members present voted to split the difference and ask for $2.87 1-2 per day, as they had previously demanded $2 as the minimum wage. The secretary was authorized to communicate with the secretary of the contractors' association immediately. The half holiday proposition for Saturdays was dropped. Local No. 825, Carpenters and Join

Paid the Rev. Eli Dewhurst-Village of Voluntown Mourns Aged Clergy-

The funeral of Rev. Eli Dewhurst was held on Sunday morning from the Voluntown Baptist church, which was filled with parishloners and friends from many places. The Rev. Dr. E. B. Coates, secretary of the Baptist state convention, conducted the services, taking as his theme The Christ-centered Life. The choir rendered a beautiful service, singing Abide With Me and I Worship Thee, Sweet Will of God. Mrs. George T. Briggs sang as the solo The Christian's Good Night. The church was beautifully decorated by the young people of the village with evergreens which were gathered by the children of the public schools, who also contributed a floral set piece of eighty-three pink carnations, representing the age of the deceased. A beautiful wreath of carnations, roses, violets and heliotrope was the tribute of love and respect from the people of the community. There were many other floral forms from friends in Voluntown Lowell. Putnam. Seymour, Newark, N. J., and Darby, Pa. The bearers, John N. Lewis, George T. Briggs, Edward Clark and Charles Anderson, walked beside the funeral car to the grave, burial being in the Voluntown cemetery by the side of his little daughter Daisy. THREE FOXES AT ONCE.

Presented by Danbury Hunter Who Claimed State Bounty.

"Foxes are becoming scarcar in the country surrounding Danbury," said Town Treasurer Morris Meyers Saturday morning after he had paid a bounty of one dollar upon the first fox to be brought into the city hall this month. The treasurer's record showed that up to the present time he had been called upon to pay the bounty upon only thirty-one foxes as against fifty-six for the year ending April 1, 1909.

fifty-six for the year ending April 1, 1909.

Mr. Meyers had scarcely concluded his conversation with the reporter when George A. Betts of Starrs Plain walked into the office with three fox skins from which dangled the skulls of the animals, which the person paying the state bounty is required to detach from the skins and destroy. Mr. Betts made affidavit that he killed the foxes within the limits of the town of Danbury and received three dollars bounty. Three foxes are an unusual bag of game for any hunter, and Treasurer Meyers said that the catch had not been equalled by anyone since he had been in the office of town treasurer.—Danbury News.
